in re: United States v. Wilburn, case No. 19-CR-108 (MKB)

Dear clerk:

I, Andre Wilburn, would like to respectfully request a free copy of the transcript of the January 26, 2022 in the above referenced case. The transcript is necessary in order to continue to defend myself against charges that have been pending for over three years due to my pretrial detention. see Britt v. North Carolina, 404 US 226, 230 (1971) ([A] defendant may obtain a free transcript without proving that all alternatives are inadequate.). This is not to be construed as a motion, but merely a request for a transcript that I am entitled to have since there is no "substantially equivalent alternative" available. Id. And despite the Order dated December 30, 2021, it is in the interest of justice that I am able to defend myself adequately as an accused who has maintained his innocence throughout these proceedings.
